197 To Graduate From ACHS Tonight

Tonight (Thursday) is graduation exercises for the 197 seniors at Antioch Community High School. Baccalaureate services were held Sunday, June 4, at the high school, with the Rev. Donald Cobb as the featured speaker. His subject was "Where Are the Goals?"

Graduation exercises will be held at the high school athletic field, weather permitting. In case of inclement weather, they will be held in the boys' gymnasium.

Juniors Kathleen Gross and Bruce Empfield will be the escorts for the graduating class. The ceremonies will start at 8 p.m.

Principal speaker for the evening will be Walter H. Ketz, superintendent of Mooseheart. He has served in that capacity since December, 1953. His subject will be "You are holding the Strings."

Ketz was born in Scranton, Pa., in 1912. He earned his bachelor of arts degree from Wesleyan University at Middletown, Conn., then did postgraduate work at Temple University at Philadelphia.

He was employed from 1935 to 1938 as a salesman for Metropolitan Life Insurance Co. at Harrisburg, Pa. From 1938 to 1946, he served as the executive director of the Northeast Boy's Club of

Walter H. Ketz

Philadelphia.

He served as principal and superintendent of the Shalcross Residential School in Philadelphia from 1945 to December of 1953, when he resigned to accept his present position at Mooseheart.

Ketz joined Philadelphia Moose Lodge No. 54 in 1953 and has been awarded the Pilgrim Degree of Merit, the Order's highest degree, for his service to the fraternity. In addition, he is a member of the American Association of School Administrators and National Education Association and a past president of the Frankford and Philadelphia, Pa., and Aurora, Ill., Lions Clubs.

Ketz resides with his wife, Katherine, and daughter, Kay Eve, in the superintendent's residence at the famed City of Children. He lists boat building and tropical fish as his hobbies.

Musical interludes for the Commencement exercises will be provided by the Antioch High School Band under the direction of Joseph Rush. Dr. Calvin P. Midgley will give the Invocation. The Valedictorian and Salutatorian awards will be made by Robert C. Denman, secretary of the Board of Education.

Superintendent Albert L. Dittman will present the graduating class and William E. Brook, president of the Board of Education, will present the diplomas.

The departing seniors presented the school with a birch tree as their parting gift. The tree was planted on the new athletic field last week. A tree presented by last year's graduating class is thriving.

A survey of the Class of '67, indicates that 94 of the 197 graduates plan to continue their education in college. Twenty-nine more are planning on attending some other type of training school: nurses training, technical training, beauty school, etc.

List Of Antioch Men In Viet Nam Grows

Two new names have been added to the growing list of Antioch area men serving in Viet Nam—P.F.C. Edward Goetz and Sp/William Gledin.

Pfc. Larry Jesse, now in Viet Nam, has been promoted to Sp/4.

Fifty-two Antioch men serving in Viet Nam are now receiving packages from home regularly through Project Viet Nam. The Antioch Post Office personnel started mailing packages of Kool Aid and other small items to the Antioch men some months ago.

The project was originally financed entirely by donations from the personnel at the post office. Within days after the first news story telling of the shipments, Antioch residents started dropping in at the post office with contributions to help support the project.

The packages are intended as a gesture to our local servicemen to assure them of our support in the battle—a word of cheer from the home town folks. In addition, the Kool Aid, dehydrated soup, and other items sent are a real comfort to the men in Viet Nam.

Many letters of thanks from Antioch men overseas have come to the post office. Returning veterans have dropped in to thank Postmaster Joe Wolf personally, and tell of the pleasure they have felt at the unexpected "package from home." We have carried stories of some of these returning servicemen, one of the most recent being Capt. Anton Jirka. A story in this week's paper tells of the awarding of the Bronze Star to the Captain, a battalion surgeon, for his activities in Viet Nam.

Here are some of the letters received this week at the post office from Antioch men serving in Viet Nam: Dear Friends:

I have received several packages sent to me by the people of Antioch. Upon receiving the first one I was stunned. I knew I should write a note of thanks after receiving the second but I was pressed for time and (continued on page 5)

Free Chest X-Rays In June

Free chest x-rays will be taken by the mobile x-ray unit of the Lake County Tuberculosis Association June 28 and 29 in Antioch.

The mobile unit will be stationed on Main St. in front of the V & S Hardware Store. Any person 18 years of age or older is eligible to have a free chest x-ray. Negative reports will be mailed within three weeks. Individuals with findings that need further study will be referred to the Sanatorium.

The mobile unit will be in Antioch from 1 to 4 p.m. and from 5 to 8:30 p.m. on both days.

The x-rays are made possible through your purchase of Christmas Seals and no solicitation is made at the time of x-raying.

Last year 829 were x-rayed in Antioch and 15 were referred to the Sanatorium for further study. The chest x-ray can also discover heart disease, cancer, emphysema and other respiratory conditions.

Antioch Friends Say Farewell To Diana

A festive Una Despedida was held Thursday evening, June 1, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Leland Hansen of Lindenhurst in honor of Antioch High School's foreign exchange student, Diana Stagg.

The adult chapter of A.F.S. sponsored this farewell party and approximately fifty of Diana's teachers and friends attended. Diana had the good fortune of having both her mothers present—Mrs. Walker-Lyons, her American mother and Mrs. Stagg, her own mother from Ecuador, who is a guest at the Lyons home. Mrs. Joseph Beahan, district representative for the A.F.S. from Grayslake, was also present.

Coffee, punch, cookies, and a special farewell cake were served. Token gifts from both the adult and student A.F.S. were presented to Diana to remind her of her school year in Antioch.

As the A.F.S. is saying good-bye to this year's foreign exchange student, there is a grave possibility that we may not have a student for next year unless more families volunteer to take a student into their home and heart for the next school year. The family placement committee needs more home applications for screening within the week. Time is growing very short.

If any family in the Antioch High School district is at all interested in this worthwhile and rewarding project, please contact Mrs. Leslie Sorensen, 395-4017. Homes are especially needed for boys.

Plans are still going ahead to raise funds in hopes that the organization does find a home for a new student. A.F.S. will be selling ice cream bars at the high school summer school program for students and faculty.

The adult officers for this next school year will remain the same. New student officers are: president, Pat Lombardo; vice president, Wendy Jensen; secretary, Debbie Chandler; and Treasurer, Valerie Strom.

Free Safety Check For Bikes, Cars

Both bicycles and motor vehicles will have a chance for a free safety check this week, thanks to the Antioch police.

Bicycles will be checked and registered Friday, June 9. A sticker will be put on each bike, and records kept at the police department will make it easier to recover the bike if it is stolen.

The bicycle safety check will be held at the east end of the village parking lot on Broadway from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. All youngsters are asked to bring their bikes in for the check.

The motor vehicle safety check will be held Saturday, June 10, also from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m., and also at the village parking lot. Lyons-Ryan Ford, John Teresi Olds-Chevrolet, Earl Stringer Motors and Pittman's Pontiac dealers will cooperate in the safety check.

Cars will be thoroughly checked for safety—brakes, lights, tires, etc. Four high school boys from the Safety Education class will help in keeping records of the tests.

Elmer and Lucile Eberman defeated last year's Champions, Dorothy Olson and Marge Beitzel, in the last match in the Lions Club Tournament. The final match was played at Paly's Lounge last Friday. A crowd of bridge enthusiasts turned out to see the two final matches.

The championship match was a close one with the final score Ebermans 1,970, Olson-Beitzel 1,440.

The team of Reeder-Wojnowiak scored 3,250 points to 1,090 for the team of Tossey-Petty.

The winning teams will be guests of the Lions Club at a dinner at which they will be presented with a trophy. The dinner has not yet been scheduled.

Off to the ball game! Low temperatures didn't stop this group of ball fans, ready to board a bus chartered by the Antioch Chamber of Commerce to see a night game between the Sox and the Baltimore Orioles.

New Tax Sources

How to raise more tax money without raising existing taxes is the dilemma of the Illinois Legislature. In their search for new sources of tax money, they are considering a bill which would tax a variety of services which have so far escaped the sales tax. Upping the present rate of the sales tax now in existence would seem preferable to the additional taxes contemplated.

Taxing funerals, one of the provisions of the bill, seems downright ghoulish to us. The grief and expense of burial of our loved ones is hard enough without the incongruous addition of a sales tax.

The tax itself would not be the only additional expense, of course. As the sales tax is added to more services, the seller of those services must up his price to pay costs of bookkeeping. This is wasteful, inefficient planning, at best.

Doctors and lawyers services are also added to the list joining the sales tax crew, under this bill. Doctors already carry a burden of book work in insurance forms which must be filled out for numbers of patients.

Sales tax added to the cost of advertising is another addition. Newspapers are already having a rough time keeping afloat. Addition of sales tax will cut down the amount of advertising, plus the additional book work. Advertising helps to sell items which come under the sales tax. What is gained on one hand, in revenue, may well be lost on the other.

And who will pay these taxes? The same people who would pay an increased sales tax on items already covered by sales tax. The same people who would pay an income tax.

So instead of trying to delude the taxpayer into thinking our legislators are "holding the line" on taxation, let's just raise the axes we have. Or add an income tax. Everyone already pays Federal income tax, so that would mean little additional book work.

Happy Birthday

There's a very special birthday this year, one we'll all want to remember.

The Salvation Army's Doughnut is fifty years old.

It was in France in 1917 that a cheerful Salvation Army lassie first handed a fresh doughnut to a homesick American soldier, and so began a great tradition.

Salvation Army doughnuts have traveled far and wide in the intervening years. Wherever trouble has summoned The Salvation Army, the doughnuts have come along.

Doughnuts served by The Salvation Army have been eaten by men and women of our armed forces on every war front of the world. Doughnuts have appeared along the Mississippi at flood time, and at all major metropolitan fires even in the dead of night.

There were Salvation Army doughnuts in Oak Lawn and Lake Zurich and Belvidere following the recent tornadoes . . . thousands of doughnuts. And here, as always, the doughnuts were the practical symbol of a hundred kind and efficient Salvation Army services for those in need.

Friday . . . June 9 . . . Salvation Army doughnuts will be on the street corners of Chicago and 141 suburbs. These will be the paper variety, offered for your purchase on Doughnut Day, the Army's annual tag day. Volunteers will accept your money and give you your paper symbol.

We hope you'll be generous when you buy yours. The Salvation Army deserves our generosity.

And certainly, you'll buy one. Who could say "no" to The Salvation Army?

Courthouse Notebook

BY LOU DURKIN

It isn't likely to happen, but couldn't the Lake County Board of Supervisors dish up a delightful mess of potage by refusing to sign a lease to occupy the new county building that is scheduled for completion some day?

Of course the lease between the county and the Lake County Building Commission for the first phase of the complex was signed before construction was started, but a new lease must be executed on the courts build-

Teacher Of The Week

Jack Bodin

Jack Bodin is a Special Education teacher at Antioch Community High School. He has been on the staff for four years.

Mr. Bodin was born in Chicago and grew up there. He attended Hirsch High School, where he was a member of the basketball and swimming teams.

He continued his basketball activities in college. He attended Morgan Park Jr. College and George Williams College, where he received a B.S. degree in Science, Health and Physical Education. He did graduate work in Special Education at Northern Illinois University.

Mr. Bodin is married to the former Mary Jane Higgins. They have four children: Karen, 12; Jon, 8; Greg, 6; and Ann, 2.

Mr. Bodin's hobbies are hunting and fishing. He's a past president of the Emerson School Parents Club.

ing. The board was to act on the lease and also approve a $7,000,000 revenue bond issue to finance construction of the courts building and some harsh discussion was anticipated since the county will have to levy enough to guarantee payment of the bonds from tax revenues if rentals to county departments are inadequate to cover the payments.

When this was brought before the board a few years back there were strong assurances the levy would be abated and never collected. Unfortunately the assurances were not kept and levies to cover the building rentals were collected in 1964, 1965, and 1966.

The current levy now being collected is $483,000 based on a tax rate of .036.

Opponents of the building program can be excused if they display some cynicism about abating the levy that will be spread for the new bond issue.

Net result of the collection of the "rental" tax is that a bond issue by the voters in a county referendum has been instituted legally, but circuitously.

It is unfortunate the county board had to resort to circumvention of the peoples' wishes, but from a practical standpoint it is unlikely that a new county building could have been built if board action was restricted to voter approval.

Sheriff Harold Scheskie has made some far-reaching changes in his department since assuming office last December, but the most apparent is the change in the color of the county squad cars.

New patrol cars are blue and white instead of the drab black and white color scheme so familiar to drivers in the past.

The Illinois General Assembly is almost certain to enact some type of gun control legislation in the current session, but the legislators may be a little confused as to which one they pass since there have been a flood of such bills submitted.

Some of the bills call for registration of the weapons while others would limit registration to the owner. Most of them are aimed at keeping guns out of the hands of criminals or potential criminals, but almost all efforts to control the sale or possession of firearms are being opposed by gun lovers.

Given the best chance to pass in the General Assembly is a bill proposed by State Rep. John Matijevich, of North Chicago, who wants to tighten unlawful possession laws and provide stiffer penalties for violations. Despite his advocacy of restrictions on the carrying and use of firearms we do not feel that Rep. Matijevich wants to tear down the U. S. Constitution nor do we believe he is part of a conspiracy to set up the United States for invasion by Reds. Some effort must be made to restrict the sale of guns to anyone who wants to buy one and to say that registration would penalize only the legitimate sportsman or collector is to over-simplify. The professional gunman may not be hampered, but there is a good chance that murders by mentally deranged persons could be substantially reduced and future victims of these people are deserving of some consideration.

Hansen Chosen Most Valuable In Track

Wayne Hansen was chosen the Most Valuable Player on the Antioch High School track squad last week. Bill Sheldon was named as Team Captain, and Don Zeman won the title of Most Improved Player.

Wayne won the Most Valuable title by piling up 125 points for the Antioch team throughout the season. He compiled his record at the shot put, where his top performance was 52' 3/4", and with the discus, where his longest throw was 142' 11 1/2".

Bill Sheldon scored points for Antioch in the 100 yard dash, the 220, the 440, the 880 relay, and the long jump. Don Zeman participated only in the pole vault, but broke both the school and conference records this season, clearing the bar at 12' 2".

The track squad finished the season taking second place in the Northwest Suburban Conference, after 7 wins and 4 losses during the season. The squad took 8th place (12 teams competing) in the Lake Forest Invitational; 8th place (26th teams) in the Palatine Relays; 3rd place of 12 teams in the Salem Invitational, and took the Lake County Class B Championship.

Sixty-seven boys reported for the first track meeting March 21. Fifty boys were still on the squad when the season ended—13 seniors, 11 juniors, 13 sophomores and 13 freshmen.

"The season was very successful, but filled with many injuries," Coach Roger Andrews said. "The injuries were mostly minor and by conference time the boys were ready. In early season practice the parking lot again proved valuable."

The varsity squad was composed mostly of seniors. One boy, Wayne Hansen, qualified for the State Track Meet. Antioch had three conference champs, Wayne Hansen in the shot put, Don Zeman in the pole vault, and the 880 relay, composed of Chuck Bista, Bill Sheldon, Paul Yuska and Jim Litchfield.

The varsity record for the last five years in conference play is 31 wins and 2 losses, two conference championships and three second place finishes.

"The boys did a great job, and I'm proud of them," Coach Andrews said. "The fine help and cooperation of Coach Mueller, Coach Youke and Athletic Director Ward Lear was of great value to the success of the track team."

The individual scoring record of the boys on the track squad was Wayne Hansen, 125; Bill Sheldon, 105; Jim Litchfield, 86 1/2; Bill Nader, 83; Chuck Bista, 81; Don Zeman, 68; Russ Barthel, 51; Tom Doolittle, 44; Mike Polley, 32; Glen Oftedahl, 32; Blaine Backman, 23 1/2; Dave Comstock, 18; Bob Biaggi, 16; Mike Mazer, 116; Paul Yuska, 15 1/2; John Mikosh, 14; Dave Blagg, 13; Dan Smith, 12 1/2; Jim Nalseda, 9 1/2; Jim Robertson, 9; Chuck Denman, 6; Frank Zeman, 4; Rich Stahl, 3 1/2; Dave Evink, 2; Bob Diemer, 1; and Alan Osterlund, 1.

SOPHS FINISH THIRD
The sophomore team won 7 meets and lost 4, defeating each conference school in dual or triangular meets. At the conference meet, 2 sophomores were placed on the varsity. The Sophomores still did an excellent job, finishing third. "There are several outstanding frosh-soph boys," Coach Roger Andrews said. "They are Paul Yuska, Bob Biaggi, Chuck Denman, Don Koenig, Fred Koch, Don Dill, Rick Nelson and John Schremser."

Flips & Skids Thrill Race Fans

Mike Wolff turned in his best performance to date at the Waukegan Speedway Saturday night as he won his first feature in a close decision over Jack Ester and set a new 30-lap late model track record in the process.

Over 70 stock cars entered the twelve-event card Saturday night. Three roll-overs and numerous other accidents kept the large crowd on the edge of their seats all night.

Wolff moved past Norm Zenko in the 9th lap and then resisted the challenges of Jack Ester in the closing laps. Jim Cossman finished third ahead of Dennis Burman and Zenko.

Jim Couch won the crash-filled hobby stock main event after a close race with June Turner and Burton Bernstein for the entire distance. Mrs. Turner moved into the lead on the final lap, only to crash on the homestretch with the checkered flag in sight.

The race had a spectacular start as Jim Eckert took a spine-tingling, high-speed flip down the backstretch. His station wagon flipped over several times, landing on its roof and skidding backwards down the track.

Even though the car half-disintegrated from the impact, with the hood, bumper, both front fenders, the grille and the radiator all ripped completely off, the Kenosha pilot scrambled from the overturned machine unhurt.

Earlier events saw Bob Morton and Pete Miller each roll over in the number two turn and again no injuries resulted.

One of the best races of the night was the fast boat race. Harold Gutsche took the lead at the start with Jack Ester second in hot pursuit. Lap after lap the two raced nose to tail. Near the end of the 10 lap event Cossman moved into contention and the three took the white flag under a "blanket." Ester made his move on the back chute and took the lead while Cossman and Gutsche raced side-by-side to the finish line, Gutsche winning the final sprint for second spot.

Pete Brewer was the only double winner of the night as he scored both in the opening heat race and again in the consolation event.

SUNDAY NIGHT RACES
Fran Ansell came home the winner of the once-rained out Memorial Day Classic modified feature of the Waukegan Speedway Sunday night. Ansell took the lead from Roger Von Otto on the 46th lap of the 50 lap test.

The feature was off to a bad start as eight cars were involved in a first turn crash and three were eliminated. Roger lies lead the first four laps until Bill Strom raced into first. In the seventh lap Tom Anderson roared in to first but in four laps the lead changed again as Ansell first tasted top spot.

At the halfway point Ansell, Bill Bohn and John Reimer held claim to the first three spots. Four laps Bohn passed by Ansell and looked to be on his way to another win as Reimer retired from the race.

On the 38th lap the unexpected happened as Whitey Harris' booger bars fell off the car and he ran over them and crashed backward into the second turn wall. Bohn ran over the bars, too, before the race could be stopped and damaged his car. Bohn went to the pits for repairs and had to start at the rear on the restart, as did Ansell who changed a tire. Now Roger Otto was the new leader.

Ansell charged forward from the rear on the restart and passed Otto on the 46th circuit. Bohn was in hot pursuit and just nipped Otto at the finish line for second money. Roges lies, the early pacesetter held on for fourth spot and Jim Sullivan wound up fifth.

The hobby stock action was wild and wooly again as two nasty flips occurred in the qualifying heats. Dave Fitzsimmons rolled several times in the second turn and was promptly crashed into by Bill Hart. Hart's car went right over Fitzsimmons' overturned machine and finally ended up half balanced on the overturned racer.

In the second heat Russ Busch tangled with another car and took a bad roll off the homestretch concrete wall right at the finish line. There were no injuries. Len Curtiss survived all of the pileups and came home the hobby stock feature winner.

Bill Robis, of Antioch, beat Tom Anderson, of Antioch, in a six lap handicap grudge race. Robis drove a Ford late model and Anderson a Chevrolet modified.

On that vacation trip, travel by daylight whenever possible. Remember, you can see more and see better and you are usually more alert behind the wheel.

Harris Starts Speed Center Win Streak

Duane Harris, defending modified stock car champion from Lake Villa, has now started a win streak of his own with a second win in feature racing at the Lake Geneva Speed Center in less than a week.

Harris also won the Indy Eve Fifty race on Monday night and came through to win again in the 30 lap main event before a record attendance for the stock cars at the Speed Center Saturday night.

His move into the lead came sooner than on Monday night but it was never as sure, as Tom Anderson of Antioch pressured him close all the way and made a great try to move around Harris as the two of them battled right down to the checkered flag.

Only two of the 18 starters dropped out of the feature race. Ray Robbs lost a right rear wheel on the 18th lap and Jr. Rodd lost a set screw on his fuel injectors that caused his engine to run full throttle down the main straightaway and off the track.

Jim Sullivan of Antioch had the lead for several laps while the field was getting around Bernie Billotti but once Harris got close to Sullivan he had to make a great try for the lead and move ahead to keep Anderson from getting the jump ahead and the win.

Ron Bergsma got involved in a couple of minor tangles but still managed a sixth place finish. Rodger Otto also tangled briefly once and then recovered to pass third place man Bill Bohn but Bohn soon took the position back and held it to the checker.

Rodger Jackson of Antioch won the semi-feature race after getting the lead on the last lap from Eddie Loomis. Ron Larson of Kenosha was third in this one.

Loomis started the night off in better fashion as he won the first 10 lap heat race and Billotti the second one. Ron Bergsma led from start to checker in the third heat and Otto reclaimed his fans with a win in the fourth heat.

Bill Bohn of Kenosha was by far the fastest qualifier as he lowered his own mark three different times before winding up with a 17.33 second lap for an average speed of 60.58 MPH.

In the sportsman stock cars, Burnell Knudston of Woodstock won the 15-lap feature and Bob Lehenkown of Elkhorn won the first 10 lap heat and Rick Schuyler of Jefferson the second.

Starting Thursday night, June 8, the Speed Center

Midgets Scorch Speed Center

A field of 32 110-Offy midgets from the United States Auto Club, descended on the Lake Geneva Speed Center Track Friday night and proceeded to heat up the asphalt with scorching track records.

Mike McGreevy of Heywood, Calif., defending driving Champion, set a blistering record of 16.75 seconds in the time trials for an average speed of 62.68 MPH. He nearly had a heat race win to add to this but was nipped at the checker by Newt White of Indianapolis in the closest finish of the night.

All the races were extremely close but this one had both cars side-by-side at the finish and White's margin was only inches.

Bob Hauck of Joliet in the Harry Turner Offenhausen led throughout the 50-lap feature race but was never able to get even a full car length away from Ray Elliott of Lockport who was no further ahead of Henry Penns. Mel Kenyon of Davenport, Iowa, a former 110 Offy Midget Champion, was fourth and Don Meacham of Fresno, Calif., was fifth.

Eighteen cars started the 50 lap feature and all but two got the checker and no car was ever lapped. Rodger West of Indianapolis had a fire break out along his fuel line and pulled out but the damage was only slight.

Merle Bettenhausen of Tinley Park, Kenyon, White and Don Vogler were 10 lap heat race winners, with Vogler also getting the semi-feature race win.

The first man to fly an airplane over both the North and South poles was Admiral Richard E. Byrd.

From A 1 c Gary Kappel: Dear Mr. Postmaster and People of Antioch:

I have received the package of books you sent me. I only wish that I could thank each and every one of you personally for these fine gifts you have sent over here. These books, I assure you, will be enjoyed by many of the men over here.

I have noticed not every town does what Antioch does for its boys over here. I sure appreciate your interest in us, and what you are doing.

I am very proud to be from such a fine town as Antioch, I, and many others, thank you all again for the gifts you have sent.

As soon as this mess is cleared up I'll be Antioch bound, and possibly even before the mess is over I'll be home. As soon as my time is up I am gone.

It sure isn't like home over here, let me tell you. The people here are sure doing a great job. You would be proud of every one of them.

Sincerely,

A 1 c Gary Kappel

Complete Plans For Red Cross Dinner

Henry J. Scheuneman, volunteer chairman, reports all plans are completed for the third annual dinner meeting of the Lake County chapter of the American Red Cross.

The dinner meeting will be held June 13 at the Officers Club, Great Lakes Naval Training Station. The featured speaker will be a recently returned Vietnam Veteran, Marine Capt. Robert W. Rychlik, who will discuss the role Red Cross is playing overseas today.

Other highlights of the meeting will be special recognition of several representatives of outstanding work in the many volunteer service programs Red Cross offers in Lake County. Rear Admiral J. W. Albright will announce the special recognition awards.

Among those to be so honored will be Preston W. Reckers, Jr., of Antioch, Mr. Reckers' committee did an outstanding job in the recent fund campaign which resulted in Antioch's exceeding its quota.

Sequoia Suzies Display Talents

The Antioch Savings and Loan community room was the scene of the Sequoia Suzies 4-H Achievement Nite, Friday, May 12. Due to the large number of 4-H'ers enrolled this year it was necessary to have two Achievement Nites, so that the younger members would not be overshadowed by older and more experienced 4-H'ers.

May 12 was the shining hour for the 9, 10 and 11-year old members. The evening program was opened by Debbie Broecker. The president, Kim Needham introduced the club's secretary, Mary Steffenberg. She carried on with roll call, asking each 4-H'er to tell what new practice she has learned this year in 4-H. Laura Kessler appeared next on the program to introduce Jane Zeman who presented demonstration on "A one-egg cake."

After her successful demonstration, Francis Collette, who demonstrated "How to bake a chicken" was introduced to the audience by an other member, Mary Palaske. Leann Buchta continued the evening by presenting Gail Bolton, who showed and told "How to set a table properly."

The style show, another feature of the program, was conducted by Susan Hevdejs, who commented as the girls modeled the skirts that they made in the project "You Learn to Sew."

The program was concluded by Jody Patrovsky, who invited the audience to view the many projects and display, and later to partake in refreshments the 4-H'ers prepared and served.

A Page From The History Of Antioch

Antioch is celebrating its Diamond Jubilee this summer, seventy-five years after its incorporation as a village.

Some of the events that happened in the year before the village incorporated are recorded in copies of the Antioch News of that year, 1891. From time to time, we will reprint some of those stories in the weeks before the Jubilee.

This week's story concerns the disastrous fire which wiped out the Rogers' block in 1891. The story was in the Antioch News of Thursday, April 2, 1891.

A BIG BLAZE

The prophetic warning uttered two years ago by the News, that unless steps were taken to provide this village with some mode of fire protection, its people would awaken some morning to find a good portion, if not all of it, a smoldering ruin, has borne fruit. Today what was once the fairest part of the village is nothing but a pile of twisted iron, shattered foundation walls and smoldering cinders, with not a whole timber left to show where once stood the finest block of buildings in the village.

On Monday last as the people of our village were assembled at their homes enjoying their mid-day meal, the terror laden cry of "Fire! Fire!" was heard, and with blanched faces and trembling limbs, men, women and children rushed from their homes into the streets, terror-stricken for the moment, for full well they knew what that awful cry meant to Antioch, where the slightest vestige of fire protection did not exist.

No pen can fully describe the awfulness of the scene. Men rushing here and there shouting to each other, women and children standing speechless and with whitened faces, not knowing but that their own fair homes lay in the track of the devouring monster, and the ever increasing cry of "Fire! Fire! Fire!" store is on fire! made a picture that will not soon be forgotten.

reached the building in time only to see the flames burst forth from a back room and envelope the entire lower story in flame.

It was at once realized how futile would be an attempt to save the building with the means at hand and efforts of all present were turned towards saving the books and stock in the store, if possible. But the fire had already gained too much headway to permit of more than the books of the store and a few armfuls of clothing and shoes being saved. When it is considered that in the storage room where the fire started, there was located at the time a number of barrels of petroleum which quickly exploded, throwing their contents in a seething mass all over that portion of the building, and sending forth a dense volume of fire and smoke, of which almost a single breath would suffocate the strongest man, it is to be wondered that even the books were saved.

Situated thirty feet west of the burning building was another double building two stories high, one-half of the lower story being occupied as a furniture store by M. A. Howard, and the other half as a lady's furnishing store and living room by Mrs. Turner. The upper story over the furniture store was used as a dining hall and parlor and was connected by an elevated passage way with the large hall over the Foltz building, while in the other half of the upper story was located the News office.

Directly south of the Foltz building was the residence of W. B. Rogers, the owner of the buildings thus far described. As the flames gained headway they spread rapidly to this building, and but little time elapsed ere it too was a seething mass of flame, giving the occupants barely time to get out the parcels of most value, so quickly did it burn.

In the buildings west of the fire almost immediately a very strong wind made to sweep the flames and to sweep them into the street, where that almost everything of value was removed from the furniture store, the flames reached it.

The lady's furnishing store, which was badly broken into, and a small amount of stock was saved, while two presses, the newspaper and job press, all the office furniture and fixtures, the greater portion of the type belonging to the plant and nearly all of the stock went down with the building.

From here the flames spread across the street, demolishing a building belonging to Mr. Myron Emmons, and occupied by Christopher Larson as a dwelling house, giving the latter barely time to get his furniture out. Had there been an efficient fire protection the flames could have been checked here, but as it was they rapidly spread from the News office to the two buildings directly west of it, belonging to Mr. A. Chinn—the grocery store of Montgomery & Story being located in one of the buildings and the meat market of Arthur Edgars in the other. The loss to the first named firm was not very great,

Frank Zeman Recovering

Frank Zeman, after twelve days, regained consciousness in Victory Memorial Hospital last Friday.

Frank, a junior at Antioch High School, had been unconscious since May 21 as the result of a concussion he incurred during a baseball game. He collided with another boy when both were chasing a fly ball.

Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zeman of Maple Drive, Antioch. Frank, Sr., said his son is doing fine, but will have to remain in the hospital for a while.

while that sustained by Edgars will be considerable greater as he had a large quantity of ice stored in the building.

The united efforts of all present were now used to save the adjoining dwelling houses but it would have been labor wasted had not the wind shifted to a more westerly direction and thus prevented a further spread of the fire. To this change in the wind and to the fact that a heavy shower of rain fell during the forenoon is due the preservation of our village. Had the buildings been thoroughly dry our limited means of protection could not have saved the place from total destruction. It would be hard to give an accurate showing of the loss on the burned buildings at the present writing but various estimates place it at about $50,000 with an insurance of a little over one-third of that amount.

The same issue of the Antioch News contained a notice from the publisher, A. A. Burke, that the News would be printed as usual in spite of the fire.

Campfire Girls Camp-out
Despite the inclement weather Sunday afternoon May 28, twelve girls in Mrs. Hilda Huntington's Campfire group had a campout. It was also a birthday celebration for her daughter, Nancy, who was 12 years old May 30. After dinner they toasted marshmallows. They made symbols to earn some of the ebbs for their jackets. For every 10 little beads they earn, they receive one large one. Mrs. Dorothy Golden is a sponsor, and Mrs. Norma Clifford and Mrs. Annette Dalugem are helpers. They meet every week and take turns with the projects of cooking, sewing and games.

After the cook-out, the girl shad birthday cake and ice cream. Later in the evening they danced to records and played games, and then spent the night bedded down in the recreation room.

What every new bride should know!

Let's see!

His shirts...starch or no starch?

His eggs...sunside up or over lightly?

His coffee...a bit on the strong side?

His steak...medium-rare or rare-rare?

His favorite pie...apple or cherry?

Knowing these things is important.

Knowing this is important, too: A&P is a store you can trust.

Brides have been doing it for over a century.

As a matter of fact, nobody has ever had more brides walk down their aisle than A&P.

We think it's important for brides, new or old, to find a store they can trust, to know that everything they buy is totally guaranteed.

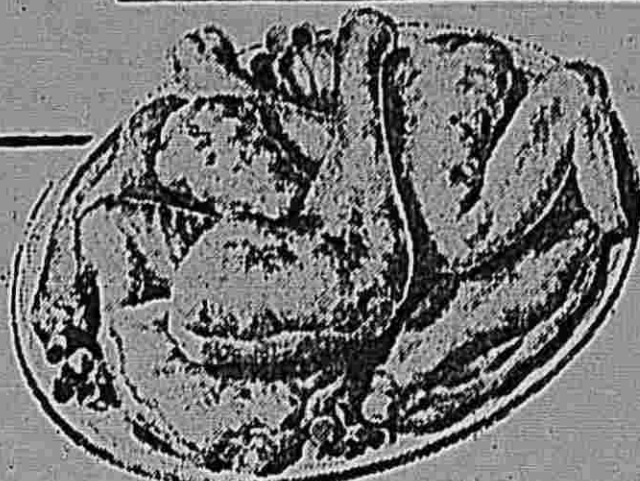

That's A&P Policy.

No matter who makes it, if A&P sells it, A&P guarantees it.

Is this a good reason for shopping A&P? It's one of many.

WATER, WATER

During an especially dry summer, I was invited to visit a ranch in West Texas, belonging to a very rich family. When I arrived, hot and dusty from the trip, my hostess took me immediately to the sumptuous guest quarters I was to occupy.

"Oh," I exclaimed on seeing the beautiful bathroom with the sunken tub, "I'm going to fill that to the brim and just soak a while!"

She looked horrified. "No, dear," she said nervously, "no more than two inches, please. Out here we just can't spend water like money, you know."—Reader's Digest

Maybe it's due to the Carnaby Street influence but more and more bakery counters are displaying the English muffin whose best friend has always been... butter. Split them, toast them, butter them generously and serve them piping hot, for breakfast, afternoon tea or a refreshing glass of milk. You'll understand why the British have always enjoyed their hot, buttered muffins. Using real butter does make the flavor difference.

Have you used cottage cheese only in fruit salads? You must try it with vegetables. Make a cottage cheese garden bowl by adding it to your next tossed salad. Toss your salad, add your favorite dressing and top each bowl of salad with scoops of creamy cottage cheese.

Chocolate Chip Cookies For Calorie Counters

Just about everybody loves chocolate chip cookies. The ones pictured here are golden brown and crisp, deliciously sweet, and lavishly studded with morsels of chocolate.
But these cookies have one important difference, one you can't see or taste. They're far lower in calories than the ones you usually bake. That's because the cookies are sweetened with the calorie-free sweetener, Sucaryl, rather than with sugar. Just by eliminating sugar's calories, you save 16 calories in every cookie. Fill your cookie jar with these calorie-trimmed goodies... and don't be surprised at how quickly they disappear.

Chocolate Chip Cookies
(Low-Calorie)

1 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/2 teaspoon salt
1/2 cup butter
4 teaspoons liquid Sucaryl
1/2 teaspoon vanilla
1 egg, beaten
1/2 cup semi-sweet chocolate morsels (2 ounces)

Sift together the dry ingredients. Cream butter; add Sucaryl, vanilla and egg, blending well. Add flour mixture and beat well. Stir in the chocolate morsels. Drop by level teaspoonfuls onto a lightly greased baking sheet. Bake in a moderate oven (375° F.) 10 minutes.
Makes 36 cookies, each 48 calories; 0.5 gram protein; 2.5 grams fat; 2.6 grams carbohydrate. (With sugar 64 calories.)
